Dear Mr. Jordan:

re. MUR 5853

I received the subject complaint yesterday and, since I am in touch with the New York Times, the Los Angeles Times and the Washington Post want this to be made public. I assume everything in the complaint is public record including the emails between Ms. Bono's staffers.

As you know, this complaint concerns Congresswoman Mary Bono's erroneous belief a satirical blog called MARY BONO for Congress (the #2 hottie) could be interpreted as her official website despite containing lampooning photos and obvious social irony comments about her relationship with: Mark Foley and his his jeep; Connie Mack; a karate instructor, campaign against Mexican-Americans; occupation as a former trainer, etc. This is all based on Bono's belief I'm acting as "agent" for her opposing candidate because he was on a second copy of my large email contacts.

I have also been in touch with Carol Dixon, an attorney with the Ethics Committee, because I discovered Ms. Bono chief of staff had related personal confidential constituent information to John Mark Blalock, an employee of her campaign office. Mr. Blalock advised me they would use this personal information as retaliation for my campaigning against Ms. Bono unless I shut down the "Bono Hottie" blog and another website called www.thedesertpun.com. I will file a formal complaint with the Ethics Committee, per Ms. Dixon's instructions, following the election next Tuesday.

Please also clarify if Kerry W Kircher, Deputy General Counsel of the U.S. House of Representatives, is also representing Ms. Bono on this matter? He sent a rather lengthy letter to my attorney in connection with my complaints regarding retaliation to my first amendment rights by Ms. Bono, her congressional staff and campaign staff. I never told him to contact my attorney and am still puzzled as to whether he attempted to interfere with my attorney-client privileges.

Very truly yours,

COPY
